

What is Servas?

- A world peace organization since 1949.
- A hospitality program that aims to promote peace through cultural interaction.
- Hosts welcome international and local travelers into their homes, sharing the best of their cultures and building friendships.
- Travelers and hosts are all interviewed for a quality experience.

What can Servas offer you as a host?

New friendships: Make friends around the world and be an ambassador to your culture all from home.

Security: The Servas organization takes time to meet its travelers, assuring the quality of interaction.

... as a traveler? Deeper experiences:

Spend a couple of days with local hosts and discover new paradises. Make friendships and memories to last a lifetime.

A safe landing: Plan to meet a host when you arrive in a new country for a safe start to your trip.
